

Klove Radio is an encouraging station that helps me. These stations are very important to me and my family. I do not think that the FCC should regulate KLOVE, because we are expressing the love that God has for us. These stations help to bring unity to their communities by helping their perspective communities through various events. Lets keep KLOVE going strong.